April 2004 Page 1/5

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT & CEO

The OTMPC Board of Directors met on March 30-31, 2004 at Casino Rama Hotel in conjunction with the 6th Annual Tourism Federation of Ontario (TFO) Forum. This year's Forum was a resounding success with attendance of over 270 delegates from across Ontario. Congratulations TFO!

At the meeting on March 30-31, the Board approved the North America, Overseas and Meetings Conventions and Incentive Travel (MC&IT) Strategies for 2004-2005, as well as, the 4-Year OTMPC Marketing Strategy 2004-2008.

OTMPC is in full swing launching the "Summer Campaign" and is hopeful the advertising efforts will facilitate a successful rebound in visitation to Ontario over last year. The "Summer Campaign" includes: a television campaign - 30 second commercials starting the week of May 10 for 3 weeks; newspaper insert distribution on May 8 will be in 18 key Ontario markets with distribution of 900,000 and 6 key U.S. markets on May 9 for a distribution of 450,000 and Union Station Domination in the month of June in partnership with tourism industry partners.

ADVERTISING OPPORTUNITIES

Toronto Star - Saturday "Travel Section" Advertising Opportunity

To build on the success of the 6-page Ontario section in the Toronto Star's Saturday "Travel Section" (circulation over 672,000) during the Spring Campaign, OTMPC is continuing this program for 5 weeks in May-June 2004 as part of our Summer marketing program. Within the 6-page Ontario section in the Saturday "Travel Section" OTMPC will have a 1/2 page 'Ontario' brand ad that will offer 4 spots for partners to feature overnight packages.

Summer Micro-site Advertising

OTMPC will be using a micro-site dedicated to Ontario summer travel ideas and get-aways to promote travel in and to Ontario this summer. This will be the 'call to action' for the OTMPC 'Ontario' branded ads in the Toronto Star Saturday "Travel Section" mentioned above, as well as, other advertising as part of the Summer Campaign. Opportunities exist for partners to buy banner/button ads on the summer micro-site to promote their destinations, experiences and products this summer. The summer micro-site will launch in May.

Outdoor Micro-site

Banner ad spaces are still available on the new Outdoor micro site which can be viewed at www.ontariotravel.net/outdoors

Travel Trade Advertising Opportunities

Ad space is still available for the October issues of Courier Magazine, the official

MEDIA RELATIONS

2004 Canada Media Marketplace

OTMPC hosted the Opening Reception at 2004 Canada Media Marketplace in Pasadena, California on April 21, 2004. Ontario showcased "Savour Ontario", the culinary vacations alliance including Inniskillin, Konzelmann Estate Winery and Chateau des Charmes; fashion designers, Pam Chorley, Ula Zakowska and Jim Searle and Chrys Tyrell and jazz diva Jane Bunnett. Over 350 Canadian partners and media relations representatives met with U.S. professional travel and lifestyle writers and editors from print, electronic and broadcast consumer and trade publications to exchange the latest Canadian tourism information and to explore story opportunities in a one-on-one appointment structure.

ANGLING CAMPAIGN

Angling Campaign to "Reel Them In"

OTMPC's Angling Marketing Program for 2004-2005 is ready to go! The cornerstone of the program is our new affiliation with the four leading Angling Television shows in Ontario which will have a major impact on U.S. border markets. The four media companies and their personalities are:

Angling Shows

Real Fishing
Canadian Sport Fishing
Going Fishing
Fish'n Canada

T.V. Hosts

Bob Izumi
Italo Labignan
Darryl Choronzey
Reno and Angelo Viola

Ontario will be the primary focus on three national specialty channels, 39 independent channels for a total of 88 shows per week. They will be carrying Ontario content, based on Ontario experiences with Ontario locations. In terms of U.S. exposure, the four media companies will appear on the Outdoor Life Network. This will provide exposure to 60 million households, 10 million in our target markets of the Great Lakes border states.

ANGLING CAMPAIGN

Ontario Angler Award Program

Ontario is now the major sponsor for the Ontario Federation of Anglers and Hunters (OFAH) "Ontario Angler Award Program". Anglers can now submit digital photos and data to the OFAH central registry. Digital photos will be posted on the web site within hours and family and friends can see their "catch of the day" including receiving a crest and certificate for their efforts.

OTMPC, in partnership with six NOTAPs, participated at 16 consumer shows in Toronto, Winnipeg and U.S. border cities this Spring. We look forward to seeing you at our Partnership Forums in the North. Make a point of coming to hear more about our marketing programs and initiatives. Your input and advice is welcome and encouraged!
